

PLEASE FORWARD THIS TO YOUR DIRECTOR!

Dear MTI Customer,

Thank you for licensing Disney's 101 Dalmatians KIDS! We hope you and your cast enjoy producing this heartwarming story of adventure and belonging.

Although it was an original song in the 1961 animated film set in London, we realize the lyric "plantation" from "Dalmatian Plantation" may surface unintended associations with American slavery. As such, we would like to take this opportunity to remove the word "plantation" from the show, including the title and lyrics of the song, "Dalmatian Plantation & Finale."

On page 37 of the 101 Dalmatians KIDS Actor's Script, we ask you to implement the following replacements in bold:

"Dalmatian Vacation & Finale"

We'll have a Dalmatian vacation, a rambling, long trip somewhere new.

...

We'll have a Dalmatian vacation so our population can roam.

In a new location, our whole aggregation will love our vacation home: Dalmatian vacation home!

And so we'll have a Dalmatian vacation so our population can roam.

In a new location, our whole aggregation will love our vacation home: Dalmatian vacation home!

Also, if you create a program or Playbill® please make sure to change "Dalmatian Plantation & Finale" to "Dalmatian Vacation & Finale" in the song list.

For further questions, please contact your MTI representative.
